Please check all that apply:

___All work exhibited will be original (no kits; by exhibiting artist only)

___I understand that I must furnish my own tent/canopy. (If you don't have a tent, its possible that an arrangement can be made with the winery owners.)

___I will have my booth completely set-up one half hour prior to the opening time of the event each day. Al work and display will be professional in appearance and presentation.

___I will handle all sales at my booth, including collection of money, sales records, and receipts.

___I am willing to provide a demonstration of some aspect of my work. Please provide some details of what the demonstration will be.____________________________________________________________

___I understand that my booth must remain open for the duration of the event. "Tear down" will begin only after the event is officially over or until such time as winery personnel make a decision to close early, for example, in case of inclement weather or other emergency.

___I am willing to donate a piece of my art as a door prize. Please give details of the work ____________________________________________________________________.

___I am providing a digital image or photograph of my own work with this application. I understand that these materials will not be returned.

___I am willing to allow the use of a digital image or photograph of my work and my name in advertising for this event.

___I understand that the submission of this application does not automatically guarantee me a space for this event and that the booth fee will be refunded in the event I am not selected to participate.

Waiver: I understand that precautions will be taken to guard against loss or damage, but the artist hereby waives any claim for loss or damage to work, display materials, and equipment, digital images or photographs. Artisans and artists demonstrate and exhibit at their own risk.
